

Saint Thomas

Thomas was an evangelist in Persia and India.

In India he is reported to have built a church with his own hands. Thus the symbol of the carpenter's square. He died when after being shot with arrows, he was stoned and left to die, but not before his body was pierced with the second symbol, a spear.

St. Thomas' Feast Day is July 3.