REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD AND LIVING OUR FAITH EACH DAY

August 4, 2024

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:
BREAD, TRUST AND LOVE

© Clare Colella

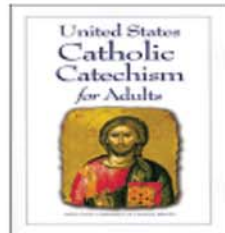

How have you experienced God's care and generosity? What have you been thankful for and how did you express your gratitude? Today's Scriptures, Responsorial Psalm and prayers focus on our human hungers and God's attentiveness. God's compassionate response to the grumblings (not prayers, you notice) of the Israelites is that they receive manna and quail as well as the water that was given them earlier on their journey. God's providence does not fail but it does not always come in ways we expect or even want.

In the Gospel we hear Jesus promising the bread of God to the disciples – that he himself is the Bread of Life. Those who come to him will never hunger, those who believe will never thirst! This promise echoes the promise Jesus made to the woman at the well in Samaria – that those who drink the living water which Jesus offers will never thirst again.

Reflecting on these words of Jesus, and on the teachings of the Church about Eucharist as the source and summit of our faith life as Catholics, we cannot but be in awe as we celebrate the Eucharist! Each time we gather as a community of believers at the Liturgy of the Mass, we are invited to hear again the prayers and beliefs of the Church, the words of Scripture and to receive Eucharist to nourish us along the daily and weekly paths of our lives. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians calls his people – and us – to renew our spirits, our minds, and put on our new self.

We have been offered the Bread of Life, the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ as our spiritual nourishment and the community of believers as our tangible support. The Church offers us the gift and strength of Eucharist and the other sacraments. The Church also gives us the challenge to live as faithful disciples – to love and serve the Lord. We do that by loving and serving one another each day as we offer our days – our prayers, works, joys and sufferings – as disciples and apostles. Yes, there is the gift of the Bread of life, and yes, there is a cost: the challenge to live what we believe, to become what we have received – the Body of Christ in the world today. Know that God is with you always! May we remember how blessed we are to be nourished by the Bread of Life and be challenged by that Eucharist to be life-nourishing for others.

FORMATION IN FAITH -2

Formation in faith, life-long, joyous and multi-sourced, draws us closer in relationship with Christ. When Jesus sent his apostles to "make disciples of all nations" there is an inherent invitation to all of us to become those disciples and to continue the mission of sharing the Good News of God's love for each of us and our salvation in and through Jesus Christ. Many years ago I heard a phrase "Nemo dat what he ain't got" which is a "half translation" of a phrase meaning we cannot give what we do not have. Apart from any legal meaning, and with a bit of a smile, we can consider the phrase in a different framework: in order to share the faith, we must have an adequate (or better) understanding of our faith. Our mission, based in our Baptism, strengthened in Confirmation and nourished in Eucharist, also calls us to take intentional steps to grow in our faith.

Too often we lose our sense of curiosity, feeling that we've learned enough, we're comfortable with what we know. But there is something marvelous about the spontaneity and eagerness of learning something new and enriching. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (available on line) is a thorough and helpful resource, but some prefer the US Catholic Catechism for Adults (also on line) as a starting point for refreshing and deepening their understanding of our faith and teachings. Each chapter includes doctrine, stories, reflections, discussion questions and prayers, in the four "pillars of faith": the Creed, Liturgy / Sacraments, Lived Faith / Christian Morality, and Prayer.

Daily life is perhaps the best arena for growing in faith: as Terry Hershey often writes in SABBATH MOMENTS, begin each day with hope, trust and a sense of adventure; then to close each day with a form of Ignatian EXAMEN reflecting on where and how we recognized the presence of God, responded to it, discerning God's direction for us that day and the next day.

PREPARACIÓN DE ADULTOS PARA LOS SACRAMENTOS

¿Necesitas completar tus sacramentos de Primera Comunión y/o Confirmación? ¿o te interesaría ser católico si aún no lo eres? ¿o estás solo interesado(a) en conocer más sobre tu fe católica? Si es así te damos una especial bienvenida.

También si eres un(a) católico(a) activo(a), te interesaría acompañar o ser padrino/madrina de cualquiera de nuestros candidatos a recibir sus sacramentos? Sería muy bonito contar con tu participación. Los temas de nuestras sesiones incluyen, las Sagradas Escrituras, los Sacramentos, los Santos, las oraciones de nuestra Iglesia, la forma de vida de todo(a) católico(a) y mucho más. Nosotros los invitamos a que nos traigan sus preguntas sobre nuestra fe.

Nuestras sesiones son todos los miércoles a las 7 de la noche comenzando con nuestra primera sesión el 28 de agosto.

Podrás inscribirte en línea o comunicándote a la oficina con Bruce Vouziers al teléfono (909) 882-2931 o enviándole un correo electrónico a bvouziers@sbdiocese.org

TRADICIÓN CATÓLICA

La tradición católica es proclamada por Cristo y los Apóstoles, confiada a la Iglesia y transmitida en ella de generación a generación. Es el espíritu vivo de fe y revelación que, inflamado en Cristo, pasa desde Él a los Apóstoles y discípulos, a través de ellos pasa a las comunidades, siendo heredado a través de los siglos. Es unidad viviente de predicación doctrinal y entrega a la doctrina. Este espíritu de Revelación es obrado y mantenido continuamente despierto por el Espíritu Santo, enviado por Cristo a la Iglesia y siempre presente en ella. Se manifiesta y da testimonio de sí mismo en la Iglesia total.

Cientos de romanos acompañan a la Virgen del Carmen en la tradicional procesión por el río Tíber

Después de que el pasado sábado 20 de julio tuviera lugar la tradicional procesión por las calles del emblemático barrio de

Trastevere, en la tarde del domingo 28 pasado, cientos de romanos y turistas acudieron a orillas del río Tíber para acompañar a la barca que transportaba a la Virgen. El culto a la Virgen del Carmen en Roma tiene su origen en 1535, cuando, según la historia, unos pescadores encontraron después de una fuerte tormenta una estatua de la Virgen María hecha de madera de cedro en la desembocadura del río y la donaron a los carmelitas que se encontraban en la iglesia de San Crisógono. Más tarde, se trasladó primero a San Giovanni dei Genovesi y luego, en el siglo XX, a la iglesia de Sant'Agata, donde se guarda actualmente, convirtiéndose así en la Patrona de los habitantes de Trastevere, barrio romano cuyo significado es "detrás del río". La estatua mariana es transportada fuera de esta iglesia solamente una vez al año, el sábado siguiente a la fiesta de la Santísima Virgen del Carmen, 16 de julio, y regresa al templo después de una solemne procesión el domingo siguiente por el río Tíber. Esta fiesta es una de las más antiguas de Roma y es muy esperada por sus habitantes durante todo el año, especialmente por los del barrio de Trastevere, quienes utilizan el término "Noantri" (el resto de nosotros) para recordar su pertenencia a Roma más allá del río Tíber.

Saint Jean Marie Vianney - August 4

SAINT JEAN MARIE VIANNEY OFTEN SPENT 16 HOURS A DAY HEARING CONFESSIONS. THINK OF HOW MANY PEOPLE HE HELPED COME BACK TO GOD, EVEN THOUGH HE WAS NOT VERY GOOD IN SCHOOL. IS THERE SOMETHING YOU FIND HARD TO DO? DON'T LET IT STOP YOU FROM BRINGING PEOPLE TO GOD!

We are Hungry for Jesus

The people in today's Gospel reading followed Jesus because He had given them bread. He told them that what they really needed was not just ordinary food, but the food that God would give them. And that was Jesus Himself, the Bread of Life!

Have you ever been hungry? You know you need food and you want to eat. But did you know that your soul can be hungry too? The food for our souls is Jesus. We receive Him in Holy Communion. Just like our bodies need food to stay alive, our souls need God.

All your life there are things you want that you think will make you happy. Have you ever gotten something that you really wanted? It probably made you really happy for a while. But we can only be really satisfied if we have God living in us.

Answers to the front page: Manna and quail. Answers to word puzzle: ate, food, life, we, God, believe, sign, Father, world, bread, Bread of Life.

Fill in the missing words.

Use the letters in boxes to fill in the blanks at the bottom.

The people came looking for Jesus after the miracle of the loaves and fishes. Jesus said to them, "You are only looking for me because you 4___ the loaves and were filled. Don't work for food that perishes but for the 7___ that lasts for eternal 8___." The people asked, "What can 11 do to do the works of 6___?" Jesus said to them, "This is the work of God, that you 1___ in the one he sent." So they asked him, "What 9___ can you show us so that we can believe in you? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, like it is written in the Scriptures, "He gave them bread from Heaven to eat." So 3___ said to them, "It was not Moses who gave you bread from Heaven; my 10___ gives you the true bread from Heaven. The bread of God comes down from Heaven and gives life to the 5___." So the people said to Jesus, "Sir, give us this 2___ always!"

Jesus said to them, "I am the

ORDER OF THE VISITATION

In 1794, a young Irishwoman befriended two widows aboard ship while emigrating to America. They bought a house in Philadelphia and began to live a community life under the direction of a priest. Soon they relocated to Washington. There, the "pious ladies," as the neighbors called them, were asked by their priest friend, by then the president of Georgetown University, to begin a religious community. In 1799 they established a branch of the Visitation Order founded by Saint Jane de Chantal and Saint Francis de Sales in the 1620s. The unique vision of this order followed a sensible routine, less arduous and more flexible than most traditions, and also accepted widows and older women. Amazingly, this American outpost of the Visitation began without reference to the "rule" of the Order. Most of the European convents had been lost under the "reign of terror," and the rules and customs of the community could not be obtained. A copy of the rule was discovered in 1812, and in 1816 the pope officially established the monastery. By then, some French nuns had regrouped, and they sent a habit and cross to be copied. (No religious wore the habit in public in the United States until after the Civil War.) From the beginning, the Georgetown nuns had an educational mission, even though they discovered in the "rule" that such work was officially off-limits for the contemplative life. In America, the nuns depended on a school for their livelihood, so the rule was adapted. Today, the Academy of the Visitation is a thriving example of excellence in Catholic education, and the adjacent monastery is the oldest monastic foundation in the original thirteen United States.

Fight all error, but do it with good humor, patience, kindness, and love. Harshness will damage your own soul and spoil the best cause.
