

Saint Bartholomew

Bartholomew probably preached near the border of India and Armenia.

According to tradition, Bartholomew was flayed alive (symbol of the flaying knife and a sharpening strop), crucified and then beheaded.

St. Bartholomew's Feast Day is August 24.