

Saint Philip

A questionable tradition holds that Philip was a missionary to Phrygia and Galatia.

Philip is said to have been martyred by crucifixion or the spear or bound to a cross and stoned to death. Sometimes two loaves of bread on either side of a cross are used to remind us of Philip's and Christ's dialogue on the feeding of the multitude as recorded in John 6:5-7.

St. Philip's Feast Day is May 3.